TRAINING OFFICER: STEVE SOBER

November was a very active month for training. The weather provided for great flying four Sundays in a row starting around 10:00/10:30. It's proving to be a good time for instructors and students to get together. Harrison Davies soloed and is now working on some aerobatics along with touch and go practice. He's been getting help from most of the instructors. Luca BenYishay-Sapalio landed a tail dragger after his introduction to flying with ailerons. Mike Masla and Walt Silva continue to make steady progress in the air and on the ground, where Mike was seen taxiing his Typhoon straight up the runway with tail in the air.

Here's hoping we'll see plenty more dry Sunday mornings ahead with temperatures above fifty and wind below eight. Hope to see you there, and at Chang's!

Steve
